It was all off with the Elks yesterday. Their star of rising fortune was first stopped from further rising by the Honolulu, but it remained for the Punahou yesterday to turn it into a shooting star. One lonely little run in the third was all the herd could bring to cover and that was not an earned one. Hampton was plainly nervous, in fact the whole team was out of sorts and bad errors developed where they were least expected. The result of it all is, three teams are tied for second place in the present series and there are going to be some game fights before the winner develops.

Punahou played a great game and Eddie Desha covered himself with glory in the pitcher's box. Castle did not appear and is probably out of the game this season owing to a strained back.

The second game. Well, the crowd deserted the grandstand in about the middle of the game and by the end there were not enough fans around to form a respectable funeral procession for the Kams. Reuter was far from being in good form, but one could hardly blame him from the support he was getting. The Kams as a whole played like a farmer's delegation from a bush league.

The Honolulu show the results of considerable practice, and if they keep on the way they have been playing lately, they might—but it's hardly worth while to venture a prophecy. Here's how it happened when Bowers raised the curtain:

FIRST GAME.

PUNAHOU-ELKS.

Game called 2:20 p. m. Woods walked and stole second. G. Judd sacrificed, and Woods went out trying to reach third. Ahrens went out pitcher to first.

A double play at first retiring Hampton and Evers settled the Elks after Moore went out on a grounder.

In the second the Puns did nothing, but a base hit, base on balls and error by Meyers let the Elks fill the bags. Van Vliet made one of the prettiest stops of the season off Ringland's hit and retired the side.

Hampton made the first hit of the game in the third inning. Evers hit and on an error by Desha was safe, while Hampton came in.

Vanatta errored in the fourth and G. Judd was safe, but he made up for it by putting Judd out at second a little later on.

White reached first safely, stole second and third, but Ringland was the third man out before "Boo" could get in.

E. Desha started the fifth off with a clean hit to left, and stole second, Vanatta making a pretty stop of a high throw. Van Vliet went out, Evers errored and Desha went to third. The crowd got on its feet when G. Desha bunted successfully and E. Desha came home trying to score. Waterhouse hit, but G. Desha was put out at third. L. Judd got a pass. Woods hit to Vanatta, who missed the ball entirely, and Waterhouse scored.

The Elks did not travel beyond first during their half of the fifth. Desha handed out a clean two-bagger to left in the sixth on the first ball pitched, but it was after two men were down.

The Elks handed out a goose-egg as their share of the inning, and the Punahou returned another in the seventh.

White hit to left, G. Desha missed Kia's fly and White made a foolish at-tempt to steal and was put out a mile. A double retired Kia and Ringland.

Cogswell dropped the ball in the eighth and Woods was safe. G. Judd got a two-bagger to left, sending Woods to third.

Ahrens sacrificed and Woods traveled home. Meyers flew out to left, but Judd scored on the throw in.

Ahrens made a good running catch of a long fly knocked by Hampton.

In the ninth Van Vliet hit to Moore, who threw wild, and the major continued to second. A long single to center by E. Desha scored Van Vliet. Kia made a wild throw to the plate and Desha reached third. Waterhouse sacrificed, sending him home. L. Judd was safe on a wild throw by Evers. Woods got a base hit and G. Judd was safe on Evers' error. Ahrens came up with bases filled and flew out to right. Judd got home on a passed ball before the side went out.

Not an Elk traveled beyond first in the last inning and for the first time this season they had to acknowledge defeat by the Punahou.

Sheldon walked and reached second on an error. Lemon struck out, but Pahu hit to center and stole second. Jones hit to right and Sheldon scored. Pahu was caught at the plate, but Kekuewa got a base hit. Hamauku struck out.

In the second the Reds got two men on bases, but could not score, and the Kams laid a goose-egg on the score board.

Another cipher for the Honolulu in the third. Lemon got a base hit, Jones walked, but Hamauku was the third man down. Fernandez reached first in the fourth innings on a bad error by Koki, but that ended it.

Plunkett singled, Reuter knocked a high fly, which Fernandez missed. Sheldon hit, Reuter went out at second, but Lemon struck out again, retiring the side.

Joy got a two-bagger to left in the fifth. A. Williams was safe on Kekuewa's error and stole second. Soares sacrificed, scoring Joy.

A double play, putting out two Kams, was the only interesting event in the last half.

In the sixth the Kams got the bases filled, but after two were out the third man went out on a fly.

Nothing doing for either team in the seventh and eighth innings.

In the ninth Gleason reached first; Fernandez hit to left. En Sue hit and Fernandez was retired at second. En Sue started to steal second. Reuter threw way over and Gleason and En Sue scored. J. Williams singled. Aylett hit to right, who threw over third trying to catch Williams, and the latter scored.

Joy sacrificed and A. Williams went out on a grounder.

The Kams were unable to get a runner as far as second base when a last opportunity to do things came around, and by the time the last man was out the grandstand was practically deserted.

MINOR BASEBALL GAMES.

The Aalas of the Winter League will journey to Waipahu today to see what they can do with a bunch of bat handlers that have been gathered from Waipahu, Ewa and Waianae plantations. Great preparations have been made by the country boys to give the Aalas all they are looking for and a hot game is expected.

The Waipahu team will probably be as follows:

Edmunds, pitcher; Melchers, catcher; McKilican, 1st base; Chase, 2nd base; Johnson, 3rd base; Allan Mills, shortstop; Swift, leftfield; West, centerfield; Boswell, rightfield. Subs—McKeever, Easton, Chase and Jones.

ROADS AND BRIDGES TUG-OF-WAR TEAM

Ki, 168 lbs. G. Harris, Coach. C. Costa, Captain. Lanohi, 167 lbs.
Kane, 170 lbs. Kalani, anchor, 198 lbs. Lona, 175 lbs.
Kanae, 195 lbs. Pikini, 170 lbs.

The Roads and Bridges hold the tug-of-war championship of the Islands, having defeated the following teams in 1902. Portuguese, Kanikau, Lumbermen, Poola and Wela Ka Hous. This year they defeated five teams. The teams, with the time it took the Roads and Bridges to pull their opponents the necessary six feet is as follows: Fifth District team, seven seconds; Kanikau's, three minutes; Kanikau's, eight minutes; Lumbermen, twenty-one minutes; Stevedores, one hour and fifteen minutes.

The Winter League will hold forth at Joy, p. m. Kaplani Park this afternoon. The first game will be between the Stars and the H. I. Ws, and in the second game the Diamond Heads and Makikis will get together.

The long expected and much discussed Judd-Stangenwald baseball game will break out into open warfare tomorrow afternoon about 4:30 on the Punahou Campus. Newsboys and janitors will attend to all law business in both buildings tomorrow, and in some of the offices for several days thereafter most likely. There has been plenty of practicing in the halls after dark, and both teams will be in perfect condition to stand the easiest kind of a game. Those who have offices in either building and do not play will be tied to trees, that they may not interfere with the game or mar the other spectators' enjoyment. In the absence of the band a team of ex-Jew's harp players will furnish music.

The Automobile.

George A. Hensley of San Francisco recently started out to make a record from San Francisco to Los Angeles in a 15 H. P. White touring car. Most of the records made have been the other way from Los Angeles up.

He also intends to establish a round trip record between San Francisco and the southern city. In connection with this, C. A. Hawkins of the White company has put up a $2500 wager that no other stock automobile built and sold in the United States can beat a car similar to Hensley's on the round trip.

In London, England, interesting stopping tests were held recently between motors and horse-drawn vehicles with the following results.

A 2-ton motor mail car going 7.6 miles an hour stopped in 8 feet, while a horse-drawn van, of the same weight, under the same conditions required 28 feet to stop in.

A 15 H. P. car going 11.25 miles stopped in 7.6 feet; a hansom cab under similar conditions stopped in 24.5 feet.

A trotting sulky, going at a speed of 20 miles an hour, stopped in 43.5 feet. A Napier racing car stopped in 26.6 feet.

A butcher's cart going 12.85 miles an hour stopped in 50.4 feet, while a 15 H. P. de Dion running at the same speed stopped in 9.2 feet.

Mr. John D. Spreckels on his recent trip to San Diego was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Sefton of San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were here on their honeymoon some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Church and Captain and Mrs. Humphrey will take a run to Haleiwa to spend the day, starting this morning.

Mr. Robt. Shingle and party made the trip to Waialua yesterday, returning late yesterday afternoon.

Rowing.

Regatta day is on September 16 this year, and both the Myrtles and Healanis are picking their men and getting their crews out for practice.

The Healanis have a large number of men for the Freshmen barge, and should pick a good crew from the eighteen men they have on hand. The Freshmen have been going out every night and are in charge of Paul Jarrett.

The Junior and Senior crews have been going out twice a week, and will not row every night until the end of the month. Bert Hellbron has been taking the Seniors out and Frank Armstrong is attending to the Juniors.

Coach Tom King of the Myrtles has two Freshmen crews working, taking a crew out every night. The Junior crew has been out once or twice, but the Seniors have not been out at all yet, owing to the fact that Crabbe, one of the crew, hurt his foot a few days ago. He may not be able to row Swimming.

Swimming under the auspices of the Philadelphia Swimming Club, Dan Renear will have a chance to show what he can do against Eastern cracks on August 19. He is entered in a 100-yard race on that date, and as it is his favorite distance, he ought to show up well. The race is an annual one for the Sackett Cup.

In September Renear will be seen in more races with the "Cherry Circle" athletes of the Chicago Athletic Association, representing that body in the championship swims.

Tug-of-War.

The Pauoa tug-of-war team are so sure that they can defeat the Young Wild Wests who claim the Junior championship, that they issued a challenge yesterday and disputed the title. The Wild Wests accepted the "defy" and the two teams will settle matters today on Punchbowl near the Mormon church.
